

OT 24 Hour Virtual Exchange

October 29/30/31

[Depending on where you are]

Exploring Balance

Come learn with & from your colleagues around the world

Attend the third Occupational Therapy 24-hour Virtual Exchange (OT24Vx) - a way for occupational therapists everywhere and for those interested in occupational therapy to share what they are doing and thinking.

Join us for 24 hours of inspiring sessions with clinicians, researchers, students, professional association leaders and policy-makers – all exploring some aspect of balance to educate, inspire, provoke and share so all can benefit.

To participate you need:

- a computer with Internet connection
- speakers and a microphone to hear/talk with the presenters

Some presentations will be archived for later access if you can't attend the live session.

OT24VX:

“The only OT conference you can attend in your pajamas”

And it's FREE!!
