23:10 to: Marion
Hope you get into this session soon properly Andrea

23:11 to: ClaireOT (UK)
Aaargh- kids at the door- sorry, will catch up later....

23:21 to: Annika S. Student (Germany)
Yes, mine is cutting off sometimes for just a sec or so

23:21 to: Beth Lloyd @lloydcrew

24:19 to: kirstyes (UK)

24:21 to: Susan Burwash
if slides not showing up they're just loading - will see either red or yellow dots

24:49 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
ooh... I definitely agree with quiet play. Engaged a lot when I was in kindergarten, particularly at home

24:54 to: Brock Cook

i would assume that its your connection.... check
"Edit>>Preferences>>Session>>Connection" and check that its set to your connection speed

25:10 to: Susan Burwash

good point brock

26:23 to: Andrea Powell #2

Thanks, had checked that and still slow, think I might need to move rooms..

26:52 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

oh yes... music play... I was randomly striking notes on the piano before I formally learned it in second grade when I was a child

27:42 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

developmentally appropriate... that can be pretty hard if you don't have that much space... I know I remember that when I was in kindergarten in Hong Kong

30:05 to: Cheryl (@otnotes) USA

risk is definitely developmentally needed! great point

30:23 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

I so agree with the "bubble wrap" comment for children with disabilities... I think some parents do that because they don't want their kids to get hurt or bullied

30:46 to: Rob Leeds Met Uni

It can also be interesting to think about what values a society wishes to develop in children and how this might be encouraged in play structures - for example independence, exploration or adhering to

30:46 to: Rob Leeds Met Uni

rules and obeying

30:47 to: Brock Cook

what other reason is there to do that bill?

30:53 to: Brock Cook

lol

31:05 to: Samar Hassani

keep going :)

31:15 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

lol

31:32 to: Louisa

lol

31:47 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
absolutely! I know at USC we have a universal design elective again this year

32:06 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
Anna Nguyen is the instructor who is teaching this there

32:59 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
wow... that's cool!

33:10 to: Marion
I love that!

33:13 to: Louisa
:)

33:31 to: Samar Hassani
wow thats great

34:00 to: Bridgett Piernik-Yoder
Such an important notion - universal design can be good, aesthetic design

35:08 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
ooh... i have seen a good bit of scissors like this... some classroom in LAUSD are proactive in this area!

35:42 to: Rashid Kashani
i always got the green scissors as a kid

35:47 to: Helen OTUK
i like that cube seat!

35:51 to: Marion
I learned to use right handed scissors when I was younger due to no left handed scissors being available!

35:54 to: Rashid Kashani
curse of being a lefty

36:09 to: Marion
I love beng a lefty!

36:13 to: Louisa
me too

36:30 to: Rashid Kashani
me four (except the green scissors)

36:32 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

I love being a lefty... too bad my kindergarten teachers converted me to a righty...
boo. :(

36:52 to: Louisa
lol aw

37:30 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
yes... the only thing I do exclusively left handed is throwing a baseball

40:02 to: Andrea Powell #3
Not able to see any of the slides, any clues?

40:20 to: Cheryl (@otnotes) USA
get messy! take chances! make mistakes!

40:36 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
so true... in USC, we now have walls where you actually can use dry erase markers on

40:45 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
at least one classroom anyway

40:48 to: Brock Cook
close room and reopen Andrea

40:52 to: Marion
All children should be able to make a mess and make mistakes

41:12 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
I know... I hate my kindergarten teachers for NOT allowing me to do that in Hong Kong!

41:37 to: Marion
We all have made mistakes in the past and will do it again in the future!

41:39 to: Brock Cook
hates a strong word for a preschooler

41:58 to: Andrea Powell #3
tried 3 times.. I give up.. will restart laptop and try again!

42:04 to: Brock Cook
ok

42:21 to: Brock Cook
gday Merrolee :)

42:27 to: Brock Cook
Ur up early

42:38 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
well... I bet if I made a mess when I was in kindergarten in Hong Kong, I would get an earful from the teachers!

42:43 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
that is what I meant

42:47 to: Dawn (South Africa) 1 #2 have no audio. any advice/

42:49 to: Calli
yay Canada! Ive been here before

42:51 to: Marion
Wish there was this sort of play areas for kids in the UK!

43:19 to: Brock Cook
run the audo setup wizard Dawn

43:36 to: Brock Cook
Tools>>Audio>>Audio setupwizard

43:51 to: Brock Cook
loved watertables when i was a kid

44:07 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1 boo... never experienced it. :(

44:20 to: Marion
Same Here Bill

44:21 to: Merrolee (NZ)
Hey guys how you doing?

44:30 to: Brock Cook
Fantabulous

44:34 to: soffi
@Marion - But compared to Austria you have got a few inclusive designed playgrounds...I dont even know one where I am from...

44:45 to: Helen OTUK
Hi Merrolee, it must be early for you?

44:53 to: Rob Leeds Met Uni
I wonder of children have been involved in the design of some of these play areas?

45:00 to: Christy-Lyn (South Africa)

We don't even have playgrounds at all here in rural SA

45:09 to: Merrolee (NZ)
6.30am...

45:26 to: Brock Cook
3hrs diff hey...thought it was 2 :S

45:30 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
not too many in HK when i grew up

45:31 to: Marion
Not found a one in many areas of this part of Scotland due to a distinct lack of space!

45:36 to: Helen OTUK
Not too bad, it has gone dark again here :(

46:02 to: Merrolee (NZ)
we're in daylight saving Brock ;-)

46:05 to: Annika S. Student (Germany)
Merolee... 6.30 pm here :) the other end of the world

46:10 to: Marion
Wish it wasn't so cold and dark here again!

47:39 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
hmm... interesting!

47:46 to: Marion
The left one looks cool!

48:21 to: Helen OTUK
love that

49:06 to: Merrolee (NZ)
great photos!

49:17 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
that's interesting... don't think I engaged play in 20 minutes when I was in kindergarten

49:24 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
20 minutes per day i meant

49:53 to: Annika S. Student (Germany)
all clear :)

50:33 to: Samar Hassani

SI is our bread & butter

51:25 to: Marion

Love that it is so inclusive!

51:48 to: kirstyes (UK)

I wonder about how developing these areas came about? - Q to remember for later.

51:49 to: Rob Leeds Met Uni

Good to see sensory experiences integrated in to play design rather than needing to provide SI therapy

51:49 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

but i heard from my classmates that there are so many different "versions" of SI

53:27 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

interesting design of merry go around

53:44 to: Beth Lloyd @lloydcrew

fabulous design

53:49 to: Helen OTUK

:) love it!

53:51 to: Beth Lloyd @lloydcrew

53:59 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

53:59 to: Julie C - Ireland

:D

54:15 to: Beth Lloyd @lloydcrew

the shade items are great

54:15 to: Rashid Kashani

this is such important work ingrid

54:26 to: Marion
:)

55:20 to: Rashid Kashani
fun!

55:52 to: Merrolee (NZ)
can't wait to show our students

55:58 to: kirstyes (UK)
Love the hippo

56:26 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
2nd

56:28 to: Julie C - Ireland
Great ideas for sensory gardens :)

56:40 to: Marion
Hope to take this to the local services for future play areas

56:55 to: kirstyes (UK)
We had a big wooden hippo in our town centre when I was younger - they bought them back behind barriers for a short time a year or so ago. Not for playing and jumping through the mouth :(

57:12 to: Rob Leeds Met Uni
Mrrolee - I agree, we do some universal play ground design with our students but this takes it a step further which is great

57:17 to: caeimhe
some really cool stuff, would love a playground like this....kids are playing outside half enough anymore

57:36 to: Beth Lloyd @lloydcrew
so true...always trying to get kids outdoors

57:42 to: caeimhe
*aren't

57:47 to: Christy-Lyn (South Africa)
I have a friend who is an architect and an OT. She'd be great at this!!

58:11 to: caeimhe
Oh goodness what a cool combination of a job!

58:29 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1
yay! Diana Henry!

59:06 to: Merrolee (NZ)

Ingrid.. are you on FB as Kingrid Kanics?

59:15 to: soffi

have you also designed playgrounds for youngsters? Older kids?

59:19 to: Ingrid Kanics

Ingrid Kanics on FB

59:24 to: Merrolee (NZ)

sorry... too early to type correctly!

59:46 to: kirstyes (UK)

has there been some policy driving this?

1:00:13 to: soffi

thanks

1:00:13 to: caoimhe

Apologises I may have missed it, but are there any publications you would recommend for play ground development?

1:00:43 to: Rashid Kashani

ludic model from Canada looking at play in both child and adult

1:01:04 to: kirstyes (UK)

Great - thanks for that answer

1:01:52 to: Calli

How popular is universal design becoming? I know the ADA has put into play policies, however, universal design is not required. Do you think some of these universal designs will be required one day?

1:02:08 to: soffi

Museums- Difficult to get to - I guess even though its inclusive designed - just the distance!!

1:02:20 to: caoimhe

No problem, cool thank you :)

1:03:13 to: Rashid Kashani

hi karen

1:03:21 to: caoimhe

Kirstyes just noticed your question, I'm almost certain Ireland have a recent policy on 'play'

1:03:38 to: Calli

wow thats so great to hear :)

1:03:49 to: Rashid Kashani

how can OTs best help push this envelope?

1:04:40 to: Rashid Kashani

next session: <http://tinyurl.com/ot24vx2012-19>

1:05:40 to: kirstyes (UK)

Thanks caoimhe - wonder what we can use in UK to drive this type of development

1:05:53 to: Calli

wow thats amazing thanks for your answer Ingrid :)

1:05:54 to: Bill Wong @BillWongOT 1

so true... Hong Kong (for a well developed country) needs to catch up in UD

1:06:05 to: Cheryl (@otnotes) USA

I wonder if the concept of "not yet disabled" takes off if that will be the cause to tip us aggressively into UD

1:07:25 to: Annika S. Student (Germany)

I have a question, I don't know if I got that right: do you work together with architects or other professions or can you do the planning alone as an OT, what is your part in the process?

1:07:35 to: Rashid Kashani

next session:<http://tinyurl.com/ot24vx2012-19>

1:07:41 to: kirstyes (UK)

Thanks Ingrid - been really interesting

1:08:52 to: Christy-Lyn (South Africa)

My friend is both an OT and an architect! Can I give her your contact details in caase she's interested to talk to you, Ingrid?

1:09:29 to: Annika S. Student (Germany)

Thanks Ingrid for your answer! That's so great and important a branch for OTs - here in Germany we're not so far I'm sure! I'm intrigued!

1:09:36 to: Kim Dauphin

Great job~ I really enjoyed it! Very interesting! :)

1:09:38 to: Helen OTUK

Great session thanks!

1:09:39 to: Louisa

1:11:36 to: Ana

1:11:41 to: Ana
this conference has started long ago?
